Back From the Honeymoon

The first and most welcome present for the bride when she enters her future home is a brand new Singer Sewing Machine, or a Wheeler & Wilson. These machines help thousands of newly married couples to start housekeeping. They enable young wives to have more and better clothes than they could possibly possess in any other way on the same allowance.

Singer Sewing Machines

also the Wheeler & Wilson are the only machines that last for a lifetime. They are sold only at Singer Stores or by Singer salesmen—never through dealers, department stores, or under any other name.

You will always find one of the 6,000 Singer stores near you, ready to furnish instruction, needles, lost parts, and assistance.

BY THESE SIGNS YOU MAY KNOW AND FIND SINGER STORES EVERYWHERE.

THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

MARRIAGE OF MISS BRIDE AND MR. VARNELL TODAY.

The Italian Ambassador and the Baroness Are Coming Back. Weddings—Personals.

A very happy wedding today, although the witnesses of the ceremony were limited to the relatives and personal friends of the couple, was that of Miss Louise Dorothy Bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Varnell, and Mr. Varnell, who were married at St. Peter's Church at noon. The high altar was brilliantly illuminated and adorned with chrysanthemums, and the sanctuary was set with palms and foliage plants. There were no ushers, the bride being escorted by her father and the bridegroom by Mr. W. F. Varnell, who served him as best man.

The bride's only attendant was Mrs. Ruth Bryan Leavitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Jennings Bryan, who wore a smart brown tailored suit, with hat to match, and carried pink chrysanthemums.

The bride was very modestly gowned in a royal blue cloth costume, with a hat of the same shade, in velvet, trimmed with blue plumes tipped with black. Her bouquet was of lilies of the valley.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Hannan. The small party present went afterward in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Varnell, 111 E. street, at St. Peter's Church at noon. The high altar was brilliantly illuminated and adorned with chrysanthemums, and the sanctuary was set with palms and foliage plants. There were no ushers, the bride being escorted by her father and the bridegroom by Mr. W. F. Varnell, who served him as best man.

The Italian ambassador and the Baroness Major sailed yesterday for the Adriatic for this country. The latter has not been here for two years.

Miss Marjory Mantz and Mr. Charles F. Hemelt, the latter being well known in this city, were married yesterday at St. Michael's Church, Baltimore. A nuptial mass followed at 10 o'clock. The bride wore an imported white lace robe and a tulle veil, caught with a diamond brooch, a gift of the groom, and carried a shower of bride roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her niece, Miss Mary E. Boone, as maid of honor, who was dressed in yellow and carried yellow chrysanthemums.

Francis Joseph Hemelt, a brother of the groom, was best man. Messrs. George C. Mantz, brother of the bride, and Mr. Egbert Pinke and William J. Leimkuhler were the ushers.

After the ceremony a luncheon was served at the home of the bride's parents, 1112 North Eden street. Late in the afternoon the couple left on a trip south. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles German and Dr. McClune of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Newmyer will hold a public reception at Freund's Hall, 815 10th street, Sunday, November 24, from 8 to 10 p.m. in celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Following the formal announcement of the engagement of Miss Theodora Shonts and the Duke de Chautauque of France is the understanding that the wedding will take place about January 28. The duke sailed today for France, and when he returns for the wedding will be accompanied by his sister, the Duchess d'Uzes. Miss Shonts will be here tomorrow and will meet her sister, Miss Marguerite Shonts, who was maid of honor last week at the wedding of Miss Owsley and Rev. B. B. Ackley, and remained in Atlanta, where a number of courtesies were shown her.

Mrs. A. A. Wilson has gone to Vancouver to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. George Davis.

Miss Maude Laurens McCahill and Mr. John Walter Lyons of Rutland, Vt., were married yesterday at St. Paul's Church by Rev. Father Rev. Robert Kinsey of Rutland, Vt., acted as best man, and the ushers were Mr. J. Edwards Capps of Rutland, Vt., and Mr. Henry H. Dunn and Mr. Henry H. Fletcher of New York; Mr. A. C. Ritchie and Mr. William M. Roach of Washington.

The bride was escorted by her uncle, Mr. Albert McCahill of Elizabeth, N. J., and was dressed in white satin trimmed with old rose point lace. She wore a pearl necklace and a long tulle veil and carried a bouquet of white roses and orange blossoms. The bouquet was a shower of bride roses.

Miss Mary McCahill of Elizabeth, N. J., her cousin, was maid of honor, and was dressed in white chiffon cloth over pink tulle. She wore a large white hat trimmed with long white ostrich plumes, and carried a cluster of pink roses. After their wedding trip the couple will go to Rutland, Vt., to live.

Miss Marie Magdalene Thomas and Judge Richmond A. Mulowny of this city were married yesterday at Asbury Park. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Frank Thomas, formerly of Philadelphia and Washington.

The wedding ceremony was celebrated under a bower of palms and ferns at noon, by the Rev. Nathan Melhorn, pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Incarnation, Philadelphia, and the bride is a member. More than 600 invitations had been issued, and in response there was a large assemblage of friends from the National Capital, Philadelphia and New York. The bride was escorted by Mr. Philip Hildrich, Jr., an uncle.

She wore a French dress of white duchesse messaline satin, with trimmings of old point lace and chiffon. Her tulle veil had a duchesse lace edge, which was also worn by the bridegroom on her wedding day. The veil was fastened with a crescent of diamonds, the gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Richard Young of Philadelphia was matron of honor. Campbell Carrington of Washington was best man. The ushers were Ralph Smith of Newark, N. J.; George Curtis of Washington, Harbison of Philadelphia and J. B. Sims of New York.

Judge and Mrs. Mulowny will spend their honeymoon in the Bermudas. They will be at home after December 1 at the Congress Hotel, Washington.

Miss Violetta Spencer and Mr. Frank Drummond Pollard were married last evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Anna L. Spencer, at the Mississippi, in the presence of the immediate families, which followed the apartment was decorated with white chrysanthemums and palms. The bride wore princess lace and white tulle, trimmed with white lace, and a bertha of hand-embroidered French lace. The veil was fastened with orange blossoms and a shower of white roses and lilies of the valley. After their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Pollard will reside at 501 Park road.

Miss Isabel May at the horse show yesterday wore a mignonette green and gray tweed tailor-made costume with coat, with a large hat of pink-colored velvet with deep red and damson-colored roses.

After spending several weeks in Georgia, Mrs. Hood Hudson of Panama is visiting her mother, Mrs. Margaret S. Proby.

A dance will be given by the Merry-makers' Club tonight at National Rifles' Armory.

Representative Le Gage Pratt, accompanied by his wife and son James Lyman Pratt, has arrived in the city and has taken up his residence in the Rochambeau.

Mr. James A. Scott announces the marriage of his niece, Anna Barbara Scott of Philadelphia, Pa., to Mr. S. Hull Miller of Wittenberg, Va., Saturday, November 16, at Washington, D. C., by Rev. S. M. Newman, D.D.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Hungerford have gone to Isle of Wight county, Va., to attend the marriage of their relative, Miss Frances Dawley Jordan, to Dr. Peyton Page Northrup of the same county. The wedding will take place in St. Luke's Episcopal Church (built in 1832) near Smithfield, Va., Wednesday, November 27 at noon. The happy couple will take a trip to Jamaica Island.

Mrs. Bessie M. Shepley of Newport News, Va., arrived yesterday on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Wood of 611 10th street northeast. She will be home to her friends until after the Christmas holidays.

Miss Mattie A. Soule, who has been spending several days with Miss Mary H. Hanna of Franklinville, Ind., has returned to her home in Falls Church, Va.

Miss Josephine Johnson of Newport News, Va., is visiting her brother, Mr. Samuel Johnson.
